HIGH SCHOOL

1.0 Introduction

- 1.1 Pleckgate High School takes pride in being a caring community which seeks to maximise the potential of all students regardless of gender, ability, social class, sexual orientation, age, disability, race, culture or background.
- 1.2 The aim of the Pleckgate High School anti-bullying policy is to prevent bullying of any sort and to ensure that everyone can operate in a supportive and safe environment without fear of being bullied.
- 1.3 All members of the school, including teaching and non-teaching staff, students and parents should be familiar with the School policy on bullying: therefore, the policy is designed to help members of the school community to deal with bullying when it occurs and, even more importantly, to prevent it.
- 1.4 Bullying is an anti-social behaviour which affects everyone; it is unacceptable and it will not be tolerated. Everyone in the school has a responsibility to report any incident of bullying that comes to their attention and these reports will always be taken seriously.

2.0 Definition of Bullying

- 2.1 Bullying may be defined as any wilful and hurtful behaviour, usually repeated, consistently over a period of time, designed to intentionally hurt another student or group physically or emotionally, where it is difficult for those being bullied to defend themselves. Bullying is often motivated by prejudice. Bullying may follow a pattern and is directed towards a student by another student or group of students. Bullying can take many forms. It is a serious and complex matter, which can have profound consequences for children and parents. We recognise that both victims and bullies may need help to stop the behaviour recurring.
- 2.3. The seriousness of bullying cannot be emphasised enough. Bullying is among the top concerns that parents have about their children's safety and well-being at and on the way to and from school. Bullying is also a top concern of children and young people themselves. Bullying undermines a student's confidence and self-esteem; it destroys their sense of security and can be psychologically damaging. Bullying can impact on its victims' attendance and attainment at school and can have a life-long negative impact on some young people's lives.

2.3 It is acknowledged that bullies may have complex reasons for their behaviour and may well need help. It should also be recognised that the consequences of being allowed to 'get away with it' can be detrimental to them as well as to their victim. All students deserve the opportunity to be helped to understand what acceptable behaviour is.

2.4 Examples of unacceptable behaviour include but are not limited to:

- Physical (including sexual) assault.
- Verbal abuse e.g. by name calling, teasing or making offensive remarks.
- Indirect emotional tormenting by excluding from social groups or spreading malicious rumors.
- Cyber-bullying, which is defined as the use of ICT by an individual or group in a way that is intended to upset others. Examples include:
  - Using social networking websites and applications, mobile phones, text messaging, photographs, video and e-mail.

2.5 Bullying may involve complicity that falls short of direct participation by, for instance, manipulating a third party to tease or torment someone. It may be overt and intimidating but is often hidden and subtle. It includes actions or comments that are racist, religious or cultural, homophobic, sexist, sexual (e.g. sexting) or which focus on disabilities or other physical attributes (such as hair colour or body shape) or any reference to Special Educational Needs.

2.6 Pleckgate High School rejects bullying in all its forms. The school respects and supports every individual. It is the responsibility of every member of the school to prevent bullying. Unkind behaviour is not tolerated, but on occasions, is inevitable and will be dealt with in a constructive way so that children can learn from their mistakes.

2.7 Bullying of all forms, including racist, homophobic and sexist language should be treated as a serious incident and reports of such incidents should be acted upon, recorded and reported to the appropriate pastoral leader. All staff will be alerted to the various types of bullying and the appropriate strategies to use when incidents occur.

2.8 Pleckgate High School will work with a range of agencies to promote positive relationships, harmony and mutual respect throughout the school.

3.0 The school's commitment to preventing bullying

- 3.1 One of the most important preventative strategies to guard against bullying behaviour is the ethos and culture of the school. At Pleckgate High School, students learn to take individual and group responsibility for their own and each other's welfare so that bullying can be more easily identified and addressed.
- 3.2 Every student has the right to feel safe within our school community.
- 3.3 The school actively discourages bullying behaviours and use a range of strategies to promote anti-bullying such as:
- Clear reporting procedures for all bullying concerns through the CPOMS referral system.
  - Immediate intervention with any evidence recorded and acted upon.
  - Staff training on what bullying is and how to report concerns.
  - Assemblies and tutor group activities focussed on anti-bullying.
  - E-Safety & cyberbullying educational events.
  - Anti-bullying activities through the PSHEE curriculum & super learning days.
  - Student empathy mentors.
  - Highlighting awareness through posters in school and via the school website.
  - The use of restorative approaches where-ever possible to resolve conflict between students.
  - Anti-bullying information in all student planners.
