

Grenfell Tower Poem

Great tragedy was thee

Remorse and guilt caught on like the fire

Even now the void seems...cold

Never seen such bravery

Forever remains in our hearts

Even though selflessness was rewarded, it wasn't enough

Loving families split so dramatically

Listen, O people, to the sad, sad tale of Grenfell Tower

Twas the looming shadow that overtook us

©ne or many of us left behind

We went for beauty not safety

Everyone, heed, we're to blame

Regret, and let it shroud you

By Saara Dayaji