

COLOUR KEY:

- Curriculum content covered
- Homework
- Assessment

ART AT PLECKGATE YEAR 9 CURRICULUM MAP

Acrylic paint confectionery line drawing

Zoom out and enlarge confectionery line drawing

Colour shading and blending of confectionery line drawing

Observational pencil line drawing of zoomed in / cropped viewfinder section of confectionery

End of HT6:
Final piece:
Colour pencil shading.
Acrylic painted sweets. Photo edits.

End of unit assessment

Independent research and analysis of artist Sarah Graham.

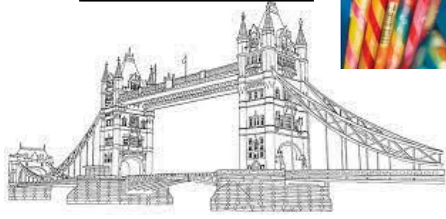

Photography of confectionery. Cropping photos.

End of HT4:
Final pieces:
Building drawing, Shading, blending with pencils, pen and ink wash. Silk painting

End of unit assessment

Observational drawing, colour shading & blending, colour theory, colour mixing with acrylic paint, expressive painting technique.

Observational line drawing by sight.

Observational line drawing - gridded

Tonal pen shading and blending of first half of building drawing.

Tonal ink wash blending of second half of building drawing

Silk painting. Colour mixing and application with silk paint.

Texture and detail with silk paint.

Observational drawing, pencil and pen shading & blending and silk painting

End of HT2:
Final piece:
Steampunk minibeast design
Completed using colour pencil shading and blending and pen typography

End of unit assessment

Tonal pencil shading and blending of Building drawing.

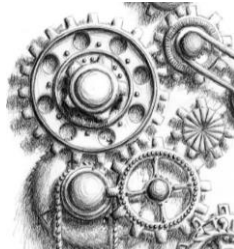

Transfer building line drawing onto silk using pencil

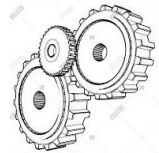

Draw over pencil line drawing on silk with Gutta

Develop minibeast line drawings into steampunk designs – line drawing

Tonal shading and blending machinery

Observational pencil line drawings of machinery

Observational drawing, design, colour shading & blending and typography

Add a typographic background to your steampunk minibeast designs.

Colour pencil shading and blending steampunk minibeast designs

Minibeast pencil line drawing

Steampunk independent research and analysis including Vladimir Gvozdev.

YEAR
9