

BOOK REVIEW

MYSTERY/CRIME

Title of the book Noor-Un-Nissa Inayat Khan

Author Sufiyah Ahmed

What was the book about?

It was about a girl who lived in Paris whose country was invaded and father died so she went to London with her family and returned back to Paris hidden to win the war.

Who was your favourite character and why?

My favourite character is Vilayat because he got them to hurry up and didn't doubt the fact that his mother was mourning over the death of his dad but got them to move before trouble broke out near their area.

Who was your least favourite character and why?

My least favourite character is Khair because she is too young to understand what is going on and doesn't comfort them after she sees them crying even if she's a little girl she could've done something to help.

What was your favourite part of the book?

My favourite part of the book is when Vilayat says "if an armed Nazi soldier came to your house and killed twenty people, wouldn't you be an accomplice to their deaths if you had the opportunity to kill the Nazi and didn't because of your belief in non-violence?"

What did you not like about the book?

I didn't like how they never seemed to really deeply help their mum when she was mourning and they just made her leave without thinking really much about her ideas/thoughts and her well-being/mental health.

How many stars would you give the book?

10/10

By Yusra Year 7

